NOTIFICATION.

No. 456L.—16th April, 1945.—The following statement of the reasons which have moved the Governor of Bengal to enact the Bengal Finance Act, 1945, in exercise of the powers assumed to himself by the Proclamation dated the 31st day of March, 1945, issued under section 93 of the Government of India Act, 1935, is published for general information:—

Statement.

The object of the Bengal Finance Act, 1945, is the same as the object of the Bengal Finance Bill, 1944 which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly before the issue of the said Proclamation by the then Finance Minister of Bengal who, in introducing the Bill, explained its object and the reasons which had necessitated its introduction. The issue of the said Proclamation has not affected those reasons.

2. The Bengal Finance Bill, 1944, after its introduction in the Bengal Legislative Assembly, was passed by the said Assembly without any amendment and it was thereafter sent to the Bengal Legislative Council and the Bengal Legislative Council has passed the Bill with only one amendment, namely, the change of the year in the short title of the Bill from "1944" to "1945". The operative provisions of the Bengal Finance Act, 1945 are identical in form and substance with the parallel provisions of the Bengal Finance Bill, 1944 as so passed by the Bengal Legislative Council with the exception of clause 5 of the said Bill which has been omitted. The said clause 5 was included in the Bengal Finance Bill, 1944 for the purpose of providing against the contingency that the said Bill might not be enacted before the Bengal Finance Act, 1943 ceased to have effect. Provision against such a contingency is however not necessary in the case of the present Act which has been enacted before the Bengal Finance Act, 1943. has ceased to have effect.
